119/18 APOLOGIES FOR ABSENCE:

Apologies for absence were received from Councillors Joyce Angell, Alan Diskin, Glenys Diskin and Helen Meredith

120/18 DECLARATIONS OF INTEREST:

There were no Declarations of Interest from Members.

121/18 PRESENTATION:

The Chair welcomed Reverend Andrea Jones, from St. Deiniol’s Church, Hawarden to the meeting. Reverend Jones had attended the meeting to outline the Community Nativity that the Church had been organising for Saturday 15th December. The event would commence at 6.00 p.m. and she outlined the draft route plan and risk assessment that had been shared with members. The event would take approximately 90 minutes and would finish at the Tithe Barn where tea and mince pies would be available.

The only risk anticipated would be when members of the congregation and the public cross Glynne Way from the red door of Hawarden Castle to the rear of the Glynne Arms. There would not be a formal road closure and volunteer marshals had been recruited.

Members welcomed this event as it would bring the community together. Councillor Helen Brown suggested that St. John Ambulance be contacted to assist with the provision of First Aid and offered the loan of the Community Events walkie-talkies to assist the Marshalls which was welcomed.

The Chair thanked Reverend Jones for her presentation.
