REQUEST FOR HAWARDEN COMMUNITY COUNCIL TO CONSIDER:

I'm wondering if you can help me in any way. Last night I was made aware that BT are selling off their telephone kiosks for £1 to local community councils or charities. I would love to turn the one in the centre of Hawarden village into a free community library since our village lost its library some time ago.

Unfortunately, individuals cannot buy the kiosk only charities or community councils so I'm wondering if Hawarden Community Council would consider buying it for £1, then maybe I could be involved in the upkeep and maintenance of the telephone kiosk either by volunteering or renting it from the community council somehow. If it is not sold it will be demolished from the village which I think will be such a shame as we are known worldwide for our famous library.

Find below the link to the scheme and let me know if it could be a possibility.

The phone number for this kiosk is 01244 5327447 and is located on the junction of Rectory Lane and the Highway.

I would love to turn this into a wonderful community project where many local people would benefit.
