

The seven well-being goals for Wales

The well-being of Future Generations (Wales) Act 2015 outlines seven well-being goals which need to be considered when drawing up local objectives. A description of each well-being goal and the issues identified within that theme is provided below. All of the issues identified in this needs analysis are cross-cutting and impact on more than one of these spheres of well-being.

|---|--|
| Prosperous (1) | An innovative, productive and low carbon society which recognises the limits of the global environment and therefore uses resources efficiently and proportionately (including acting on climate change); and which develops a skilled and well-educated population in an economy which generates wealth and provides employment opportunities, allowing people to take advantage of the wealth generated through securing decent work. |
| Resilient (2) | A nation which maintains and enhances a biodiverse natural environment with healthy functioning ecosystems that support social, economic and ecological resilience and the capacity to adapt to change (for example climate change). |
| Healthier (3) | A society in which people's physical and mental well-being is maximised and in which choices and behaviours that benefit future health are understood. |
| More equal (4) | A society that enables people to fulfil their potential no matter what their background or circumstances (including their socio economic background and circumstances). |
| Cohesive communities (5) | Attractive, viable, safe and well-connected communities. |
| Vibrant culture and thriving Welsh language (6) | A society that promotes and protects culture, heritage and the Welsh language, and which encourages people to participate in the arts, and sports and recreation. |
| Globally responsible (7) | A nation which, when doing anything to improve the economic, social, environmental and cultural well-being of Wales, takes account of whether doing such a thing may make a positive contribution to global well-being. |
