CHAIR'S REMARKS:

The Chair referred to the Remembrance Day Service at the Hawarden War Memorial when he said it had been his honour and privilege to lay the wreath on behalf of the Community Council. He commended the Council staff for their organisation of the event. The Chair also thanked his Vice-Chair, Councillor Clive Carver for laying a wreath on behalf of the Community Council at the Remembrance Day Service held at Connah's Quay Cenotaph.

The Chair said that he had been concerned about the manner in which Members had attempted to rush through the business of the Committees held on 8 November 2010 and asked that they respect the various Committee Chairs.
