519/17 COMMUNITY IN BLOOM 2018

Councillors Cheryl Carver and Helen Brown advised that the Community in Bloom Sub-Group had recently met and reviewed the competition. It had been agreed to include 10 separate categories in the competition this year but that entrants would be limited to 2 categories only. The judging would take place 2nd to 5th July and previous winners would be contacted to see if they would like to become a member of the judging panel. The Hawarden Estate Farm Shop had also agreed to sponsor eight categories.

The Hawarden Festival Committee had agreed to sponsor the remaining two categories of Businesses and Schools and they advised that they would also be arranging a Scarecrow Competition over the same period with the winners being announced at the Summer Carnival.

IT WAS RESOLVED: to note the update.

520/17 CLERK'S REPORT:

The Clerk advised of the following updates:

- The 'Silent Solder' had been ordered with Hawarden Community Council being the first community council in North Wales to sponsor one;
- The Clerk sought ideas from Members on how to involve the schools in the 2018 memorial.
- The Clerk reminded Members to submit nominations for the 2018 Community Volunteer Scheme.
- A full update on the memorial restoration will be added to the next agenda.
- Councillor Ralph Small asked that the Notice Board in Mancot be upgraded to include lockable Perspex doors and that he would manage the board.

IT WAS RESOLVED: to note and approve the updates as outlined.
